

Human Trafficking 101 for First Responders

The South Carolina Fire Academy is partnering with Lighthouse for Life to host a free two-hour virtual workshop educating First Responders on the realities of human trafficking and how to join the fight against it.

Lighthouse for Life is an organization that exists to educate people about the realities of human sex trafficking in the United States. This workshop will help attendees understand the realities of human trafficking, differentiate between myths vs realities, recognize risk factors and indicators, understand the mindset of victims, the dangers of social media, and actions to take if you suspect someone to be involved in human trafficking.

DATE: Tuesday, June 29, 2021

TIME: 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

REGISTER: 9028-22-001 <https://fire.llr.sc.gov/Portal/Registration/registration.aspx?crsidnt=72431>

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Lisa Kejr joined Lighthouse for Life in October 2015 as its first paid employee. Lisa was a public school teacher for 10 years, prior to joining Lighthouse for Life, where she served students struggling with emotional disabilities. A Columbia International University graduate with a double major in Elementary Education and Bible, she later added on certification for working with students with emotional disabilities. She has a passion for helping those, who have been emotionally and physically abused, find care and hope. Lisa spent a year in Liberia, West Africa setting up a K-8 school for the nationals and has served as the Learning Center Director at Fellowship Bible Church for three years. She is currently a sponsored member of the Vistage business group, led by Lorraine Wisemen, CEO of Leading the Wise Way, a South Carolina-based executive consulting firm specializing in strategy and change management. For more information, visit: <https://www.lighthouseforlife.org/>

Questions? Please contact Amy Williamson

