

Free Online Training

Are you looking for free, online training during the COVID-19 pandemic? Please review and share the compiled list of training opportunities with your fire service personnel. These classes are hosted by the South Carolina Fire Academy and a few of its partnering agencies.

S.C. State Firefighters' Association

The South Carolina State Firefighters' Association provides free, online training that has been submitted by Training Officers, Company Officers, and Fire Instructors.

<https://scfiretraining.com/>

National Fire Academy

The National Fire Academy offers online self-study and mediated courses that are free to fire and emergency services personnel.

<https://www.usfa.fema.gov/training/nfa/courses/online.html>

National Wildfire Coordinating Group

Through the partnership between the National Fire Academy and the National Wildfire Coordinating Group, there are several online wildland firefighting self-study courses available, free to fire and emergency services personnel.

<https://apps.usfa.fema.gov/nfacourses/catalog/search?online=1&courseCurricula=18&forget=true>

South Carolina Fire Academy

In addition to traditional in-person and live instructor-led virtual learning, the South Carolina Fire Academy continues to offer many free, self-paced online classes and pre-recorded training sessions.

Online Classes: <https://onlinetraining.statefire.org/>

Pre-Recorded Online Training:

<http://statefire.llr.sc.gov/scfa/pdf/2020/prerecorded%20online%20training%20ad.pdf>

For additional training resources, please contact your Regional Coordinator.