

SC Fire Academy Instructor Recertification 2023

Maintain your Active Instructor status!

Who Should Attend?

- SCFA instructors who have completed either the 4174-New Instructor Orientation or 4220-Instructor Recertification Workshop before 2022 must take one of the specified five courses listed below to maintain their active status.
- Any instructor currently listed as "inactive" may also take one of the courses to regain "active" status.

Workshop Details:

The recertification workshop is offered as a free pre-recorded video on the Academy's Blackboard training site. To access it, register via the Fire Portal (links provided below).

A few days before the course, an email with directions and access information will be emailed to students. The course will remain active for 15 days for viewing.

Please Note: Instructors who completed either the 4174-New Instructor Orientation or the 4220-Instructor Recertification Workshop in 2022 or 2023 do not need to attend this year's recertification.

In January 2024, any instructor who has not completed either 4174 (New Instructor Orientation) or 4220 (Instructor Recertification) in 2022 or 2023 will be considered "inactive."
